

Countries and Regions for Visa Exemptions (as of January 2017)
Asia	Europe
Japan * (30 days)	Austria * (30 days)
Malaysia * (30 days)	Belgium * (30 days)
Mongolia (90 days)	Bulgaria * (30 days)
Republic of Korea  (30 days)	Croatia * (30 days)
Singapore * (30 days)	Cyprus * (30 days)
Hong Kong SAR, PRC  (14 days)	Czech Republic * (30 days)
CIS	Denmark * (30 days)
Azerbaijan  (30 days)	Estonia * (30 days)
Armenia  (90 days)	Finland * (30 days)
Belarus  (90 days)	France * (30 days)
Georgia  (90 days)	Germany * (30 days)
Kyrgyz Republic  (90 days)	Greece * (30 days)
Moldova  (90 days)	Hungary * (30 days)
Russia  (90 days)	Iceland * (30 days)
Tajikistan  (30 days)	Ireland * (30 days)
Ukraine  (90 days)	Italy * (30 days)
Uzbekistan  (30 days)	Latvia * (30 days)
North America	Lithuania * (30 days)
Canada * (30 days)	Luxembourg * (30 days)
United States * (30 days)	Malta * (30 days)
Latin America	Monaco * (30 days)
Argentina  (30 days)	Netherlands * (30 days)
Brazil  (30 days within a year)	Norway * (30 days)
Ecuador  (30 days within 180 days)	Poland * (30 days)
Chile * (30 days)	Portugal * (30 days)
Mexico * (30 days)	Romania * (30 days)
Oceania	Serbia  (30 days)
Australia * (30 days)	Slovakia * (30 days)
New Zealand * (30 days)	Slovenia * (30 days)
Middle East	Spain * (30 days)
Israel * (30 days)	Sweden * (30 days)
Turkey  (30 days)	Switzerland * (30 days)
UAE * (30 days)	United Kingdom * (30 days)

* In accordance with the Governmental Regulation №838 from December 23, 2016, citizens of the above-mentioned countries are exempted from visa requirements for visits up to thirty calendar days from the moment of crossing the state border.

** Nationals and Citizens of Countries and Regions with Reciprocal Visa Exemption Arrangements with Kazakhstan.